

SIEMENS

May 6, 2009

Horizon High School
Scottsdale, Arizona
Attn: Dr. Dan Courson

Dear Mr. Courson:

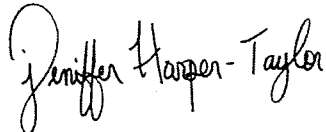

I am honored to inform you that Senator John McCain has graciously recognized your outstanding achievement as a recipient of the 2009 Siemens Award for Advanced Placement.

Enclosed you will find Senator McCain's letter of congratulations, which was forwarded to us on his behalf. You are a shining example of your state's achievements in math and science. This recognition is a wonderful confirmation of your dedication to academic excellence.

The Siemens Foundation is proud to reward exceptional U.S. high schools, teachers and students and do our part to nurture the scientists and engineers of tomorrow. I invite you to learn more about our generous scholarship and awards programs at the Siemens Foundation web site www.siemens-foundation.org.

Congratulations again, and enjoy the summer.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Jeniffer Harper-Taylor".

Jeniffer Harper-Taylor

Certificate of Recognition

Presented to

Horizon High School
for excellence in math and science

Dated this 24th day of February, 2009
Washington, D.C.

John McCain

John McCain, United States Senator
Arizona