PVUSD Hires Part-time District Athletic Director

Scott B. Brown has been hired as the district athletic director of the Paradise Valley Unified School District, which serves students in northeast Phoenix and parts of north Scottsdale. He will serve as a liaison between the individual high school athletic directors and the various departments at the district office, including finance, transportation, human resources and purchasing.

Brown will continue his duties as athletic director at North Canyon High School on a part-time basis. He has served in that role for eight years, in addition to teaching classes.

Brown received a bachelor's degree from Ft. Hays State University in Kansas. In the last 25 years he has taught and coached from the elementary-school level up to assistant basketball coach at Emporia State University. He was voted 4A Coach of the Year in 1995 and was Region Basketball Coach of the Year twice while at Mingus High School in Cottonwood (AZ). In 2004 he was awarded the prestigious AIA Pursuing Victory with Honor Administrator of the Year Award. Brown recently coached a Special Olympics team of PVUSD high school students.
